

CO-CURRICULAR MENU OF OPPORTUNITY

SUMMER 2020 – ISSUE SEVEN

ST EDMUND'S
SCHOOL
CANTERBURY

CO- CURRICULAR

In addition to the scheduled curriculum time, the school has collated a selection of resources that pupils can dip into to keep them educated, entertained and exercised without having to leave the house.

The Core Subjects

Looking for fun ways to help your child with SPAG (Spelling Punctuation and Grammar)? Go to Sirlinkalot that offers fun quizzes and challenges to make spelling fun.

Spark Notes is a great website to use to find the most comprehensive, accurate, and useful guides to classic and contemporary literature on the internet. Whether you're studying Hamlet or Hunger Games, Spark Notes will make sure you get the Big Idea.

BBC Bitesize offers support for pupils from Key Stage 1 up to Key Stage 5 in all subject including English, Maths and Science

Carol Vorderman has announced that access to her online school The Maths Factor will be free while schools are closed.

At 11am daily, children's TV presenter Maddie Moate will be running science classes on weekdays via her YouTube channel.

For STEM related activities check out Crest Awards. For a challenge children could enter the Crest Bronze Award.

Learning about cute, weird, and fun animals in science. Visit Sci Show Kids!

Make a stop motion animation video – these look great and they're easier than you think.

Ev erything needed to learn computer programming the fun way! Go to Tynker to find out more.

The Inspiring Digital Enterprise Award, known as iDEA is an international programme that helps young children develop digital, enterprise and employability skills for free. Through a series of online challenges, you can win career-enhancing badges, unlock new opportunities and, ultimately, gain industry-recognised Awards that help you stand out from the crowd.

The online place to discover the magical world of the Dr Seuss books. Find out more about the stories and characters as well as the experiences for fans around the world.

Coolmath4kids. This website pairs maths with games. Grand Prix Multiplication, Alien Addition, Dirt Bike Fractions and Jet Ski Addition are all great games to engage children in mathematics.

For lots of mathematical activities from KS2 through to Oxbridge papers visit DrFrostMaths

Welcome to our 'Kid's Hub' to help entertain and educate children (and grown-ups) at home!
Royalmint.com/kids

Writing Competition. A writing competition about life in lockdown for 7-17 years old. Go on, do it!

Humanities

Check out the National Geographic Association Kids website for activities and games.

Explore bitesize, hands-on activities to use in the classroom or do at home with The Met Office.

Naturalist, writer and TV presenter, Steve Backshall is best known for BBC TV's Deadly 60. You can catch Steve every day on Facebook at 9.30am where he'll be answering questions about wildlife and conservation.

The Brain Scoop is an educational YouTube channel filmed at The Field Museum in Chicago and hosted by Emily Graslie.

Pretend to travel the world by going on a virtual tour of 12 famous museums, from London to New York and Berlin. While on the subject of travel, this is a great way to learn more about different countries at Geo Focus.

From the Royal Geographical Society children of all ages can enter the 'Young Geographer of the Year' competition. Email your geography teacher if you are thinking about entering this competition.

There is a competition for the best Religious Studies A level essay, the David Garlick prize.

For budding philosophers, Philosophy Bites has podcasts on every aspect of philosophy: Philosophy Bites

The Moral Maze on Wednesday Radio 4, which discusses current issues, is always interesting. Past episodes can be listened to as podcasts.

The excellent National Association of Teachers of Religious Education (natre) site provides lots of useful links for all age groups and is an excellent starting point for home learning. They provide a list of free video clips

Operation Wallacea; Online week long internships for 15-18 yr olds available. Remote project work and work experience in a variety of fields. If you are interested please contact Mrs Burton (vhb@.....). Placements this summer include project work on;

Coral reef ecology Rainforest Ecology Spider monkey behaviour Large mammals in an African savannah

Design and Technology

Design your own board game – here's how

From the Shaw Academy you can take part in a FREE 4 week graphic design course.

Are you interested in chairs? Why not watch the History of Chairs

The 30-day lego challenge is a great activity for creative children.

If children want to enter a DT related competition the Product in a tin competition from Boyd Education should support their creativity.

Are you ready for a challenge? Dyson Challenge Cards for all Ages is a free resource that will support children's inquiring minds.

Binging with Babish. Watch Babish recreate the iconic and obscure foods from your favourite movies and TV shows, all in dazzling 4k.

The BBC's Get kids cooking website is a great way to get your children cooking. Here you will find recipes for dishes including tuna sundried tomato pasta bake, paella, beef broccoli noodles and quiche lorraine frittata

Mumsnet also offer a range of recipes for budding chefs including chocolate chip cookies, microwave

chocolate cake, vanilla fudge, one bowl chocolate cake, orange yoghurt cake and thai fish cakes

TheCraftyRobot Something a little coss curricular, IT and Design Tech.

Join thousands of parents using the most trusted home education app from year 1 to GCSE MyEdplace

To warm you up for the next page Kent Cricket Webinar - Back to it! Kent and England Cricket stars Joe Denly, Sam Billings, Zac Crawley and Head Coach Matt Walker talk about preparing for what might be ahead.

Sport and Exercise:

Joe Wicks. Join the rest of the nation and do P.E with Joe Wicks every weekday morning at 9am on YouTube.

Have a kids' yoga session – great to calm them down after a high energy activity, visit Cosmic Kids on YouTube and for older children Do You Yoga offers free online sessions.

Strictly Come Dancing champion Ofi Mabuse is offering dance classes for children and adults on her social media platforms, with help from her husband Marius Lepure. You can find the kids classes on her Facebook, Instagram and YouTube accounts at 11:30am every day.

Fun curriculum-linked resources to get moving while children learn, visit BBC's Super Movers. The Youth Sport Trust also offer a selection of free PE related resources.

Create your own table football. CBBC has its own Blue Peter guide for making one.

Headspace is an app that teaches you how to meditate, relieving stress and encouraging better sleep.

You Tube Channel and App 12 Minute Athlete is a short effective HITT workout for cardio, strength and rebalance. Body weight moves only and can be completed in your bedroom or elsewhere.

Stay in, work out tips and guidance from Sport England give advice on how to keep or get active in and around your home.

Apps designed for older children and teenagers to develop resistance training and fitness includes Resistance Training for Teens.

Gym Cube is a great website that offers 700+ workout videos and advice on how to stay fit and healthy. For fantastic fitness ideas you can also visit Dare Bee.

From My Sport Science Check out loads of great resources to help your athletic ability. From advice on nutrition to strength and conditioning, there is a huge range of guidance.

To improve your fitness there are plenty of YouTube channels that offer HITT training from people including George Grayson, Jessica Ennis Hill and Nate Bower.

A great place to visit for PE sessions for the very young is ThisisPE.

Chelsea FC have created a set of resources for young footballers and Sasha Corbin (England international netball player) has lots of advice on her YouTube channel.

For athletic activities Jenny Meadows has some great challenges for children. There is also some good advice from England Athletics, supporting mental health. Go to Funetics for a range of activity videos for younger children.

For swimmers visit Summer Solutions Swim for 10 Dry Land Exercises for Swimmers You Can Do at Home.

For tennis lovers check out the Tennis Volleyball Challenge and resources and activities from Serve and Volley Tennis and The LTA

There is a range of resource and videos for cricket players including Buzz About Cricket and daily videos from Chis Rushworth. The ECB website is a good place to look for cricket lovers of all ages.

The Your School Games website site has a huge array of resources including an opportunity to take part in The School Games Active Championships

Modern Foreign Languages

Educational software company Rosetta Stone is offering schoolchildren free access to its language courses for three months to help kids who are learning from home. You can choose from French, Spanish, Italian or German. Find out more here!

CLE International is a great place to go if children need resources to develop their French speaking and reading skills. CLE is currently offering FREE access to their digital manuals

Visit Languages Online for a range of interactive tasks and printable worksheets for a range of languages including French, German and Spanish

For younger children Duolingo is a fun app for children and their parents to develop their vocabulary. It also helps to make sentences.

For young learners read Little Red Riding Hood translated into French and listen to a French song here here.

For older French learners there are a range of podcasts from News in Slow French and Learn Break Languages. There are also a range of good websites for French learners including Bonjour de France, Apprendre, Lingua, Platea, Vate faire, Conjuguer, Larousse and Parler Francais

If Spanish is a language you want to explore go to Fibabc to view a range of programs and films in Spanish. For a range of podcasts go to Radio Lingua and here is a good website if you want to practice your reading skills.

The Creative Arts

Whether you're a parent looking for inspiration or a student wanting to get creative, The Royal Shakespeare Company has lots of resources and ideas you can use.

ACE children's picture book author Rob Biddulph is doing Draw With Rob, every Tuesday and Thursday on Facebook and Instagram. Grab some paper and a pencil and get drawing with him. Watch Rob Biddulph here!

Guitar maker Fender has made its online courses free for three months and you choose between acoustic, electric, bass or ukelele in a variety of different styles from country and pop to rock and blues. It normally costs £10 a month to do this course so this is a good deal. You'll need to be quick though to grab a code here.

If beat boxing is your thing check out Beat box Adventures

From Classic FM 'Classical 100' is now offering every child in the UK can have access to some of the greatest music ever written

If you've got a creative streak - or even if you haven't - then this is another online resource you should check out Creative Bug

National Portrait Gallery

Stay inspired with 'Art is where the home is' – First Site's artist created activity packs, featuring contributions from UK artists including Antony Gormley, Sarah Lucas, Gillian Wearing, Grayson Perry and more.

Robot Tours and Gallery tours and the wonderful gallery on the shore in sunny Hastings, East Sussex. Situated on the dramatic seafront of Europe's oldest fishing beach, Hastings Contemporary – formerly the Jerwood Gallery – champions modern and contemporary art with a bold and ambitious exhibition programme

Visit the The National Portrait Gallery website to view on-line collections and take part in activities.

Other Ideas

BBC Bitesize Daily are delivering a range of lessons in different subject areas.

Turtle Diary introduces kids to new, exciting ways of learning with the help of fun online games, videos, experiments, puzzles and colouring sheets.

Download some free resources from Twinkl (used by school teachers all over the UK).

FreeCreativeMagazine

Outdoor Learning with Impact SprintCampusUK

Earn a Blue Peter badge. There are instructions here on exactly what your kids need to do, to earn different Blue Peter badges.

Get your kids immersed in all sorts of subjects with former Blue Peter presenter Konnie Huq. Find out more here.

You can do 'Calm Kids' or 'Soothing Meditations' on the Calm app here or tap into a collection called 'Weathering the Storm' on Headspace here.

Using their school log-in details (email and password) pupils have free access to Minecraft Education.

Brain Pop is an online resource that ticks all the boxes when it comes to mixing learning with enjoyment.

For budding teachers New Generation Teachers offers a resource that is designed to give school students a selection of teaching skills to inspire their interest in teaching.

Are you striving to change the face of society, positively impact the environment, or make a mark on your community? If the answer is yes, check out the Pearson's World Changer Awards.

AimHi is a global online school for students to learn, interact and be inspired by charismatic experts and exceptional teachers, for free.

New Links this week!

BBC Teach - Whether you're at home or at school, you can use BBC Teach for free. Our website is home to thousands of free curriculum-mapped videos, arranged by age-group and subject.

For our eldest pupils - A chance to learn workplace skills - New free online learning platform to boost workplace skills. Online platform 'The Skills Toolkit' will help people to build their skills during the coronavirus outbreak and beyond.

Science at Home - 10 easy & cool science experiments for kids to do at home.

Free Aboriginal Art Lessons and much more! - share the knowledge and understanding of art and design to improve your artistic skills and to increase your enjoyment in creating artworks.

